

Beetroot

Building your MVP

Beetroot offers Founders loft members:

1. 3 hours free "technical consulting", depending on the specific needs of the company it could be different people doing these sessions, but typically it would be one of Beetroot's Tech Leads, Business Analysts, or Delivery managers, the later more for questions more about how to structure a team of software development.
2. 6-month 10% discount offer to all services
3. I would love to do an inspirational session or similar and talk about our story as well as what we can do during the spring.
